

JERUSALEM.—The Garden of Gethsemane.

Raphael Tuck &amp; Sons "Oilette"

Postcard No. 8979

From "THE HOLY LAND," illustrated by F. Tuckley, R.L. (L.I. &amp; Co. Ltd. 1904)

Printed in the United Kingdom

By Appointment.

JERUSALEM. — The Garden of Gethsemane. The olives in the foreground are some of the extremely ancient trees for which the Garden is famous. It will be remembered that the word Gethsemane means "oilpress." Across the Valley of Jehoshaphat (Kidron) the prospect is terminated by part of the East Wall of the "noble Sanctuary," with the Golden Gate on the right.

LL9809

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

CTPA12 9